 MEDIA RELEASE
 FRIDAY 29th JULY 2011

COERVER® COACHING helps inspire the WHITE KNIGHTS

COERVER® COACHING' Illawarra started a relationship with the Illawarra Disability Trust—Sports and Recreation. It was announced this week that Coerver® Illawarra has extended its partnership for another 12 Months. Coerver® has donated another 12 months of FREE coaching to the football program “WHITE KNIGHTS” taking the program through to 2012.

Just recently 7 players of the squad were selected to represent Australia at the Global Games in Italy. The seven players are Nathan Whalen, Koby Banks, John Ruiz, Caitlin Cooney, Mitchell Forrest, Rocco Musumeci and Dane Pritchard. In September this year they will compete with the best footballers from around the world.

Coerver® Coaching Illawarra director Matt Borg is extremely proud of the energy ,effort and commitment the players all put into their training. The hard work has paid off and we wish the players the very best in Italy.

Coerver® Illawarra has also donated $250 towards funding the players to travel to Italy.

If anyone would like to help send these very talented players to Italy, you can help by making any donations by contacting us via email at contact@coerverillawarra.com.au
